

Clinical Record Page 1

Patient Name: Rajesh Kumar

MRN: MRN-2026-1001

Admission Date: 2026-06-10

Discharge Date: 2026-06-15

Age: 42 Years

Gender: Male

Primary Diagnosis: Acute Gastroenteritis with Dehydration

Secondary Diagnosis: Urinary Tract Infection

Allergies: Penicillin

Clinical Record Page 2

History of Present Illness

Patient presented with vomiting, diarrhea, abdominal pain, fever, and dehydration for 3 days.

Clinical Record Page 3

Physical Examination

Vital signs recorded. Patient clinically dehydrated and admitted for further management.

Clinical Record Page 4

Laboratory Investigations

CBC normal. Serum sodium low. Creatinine elevated initially.

Clinical Record Page 5

Radiology Report

Ultrasound abdomen showed Grade-I fatty liver changes and mild colitis features.

Clinical Record Page 6

Medication Administration Record

IV Fluids, Ceftriaxone, Pantoprazole, Ondansetron administered.

Clinical Record Page 7

Hospital Course

Patient improved with supportive treatment and antibiotics.

Clinical Record Page 8

Consultation Notes

Internal medicine review completed. No surgical intervention required.

Clinical Record Page 9

Procedures

IV Cannulation, Ultrasound Abdomen performed.

Clinical Record Page 10

Discharge Medications

Oral Antibiotic, ORS, Pantoprazole, Probiotic prescribed.

Clinical Record Page 11

Follow-Up Instructions

Review after 7 days. Repeat urine culture if symptoms persist.

Clinical Record Page 12

Discharge Summary

Discharge Condition: Hemodynamically Stable. Pending Results: None.